

-----Question-----

1. Select all columns from an employees table.
2. Retrieve the name and salary of employees earning more than 50,000.
3. List all employees whose department is 'Sales'.
4. Get all employees sorted by salary in descending order.
5. Find employees whose name starts with the letter 'A'.

6. Count the total number of employees in the company.
7. Find the average salary of all employees.
8. Get the maximum and minimum salary from the employees table.
9. List distinct department names from the employees table.
10. Find employees hired between '2020-01-01' and '2022-12-31'.

11. Find the total number of employees in each department.
12. Get the average salary per department.
13. List departments having more than 5 employees.
14. Find the department with the highest total salary expenditure.

15. Given employees and departments tables, list each employee's name along with their department name (INNER JOIN).
16. List all departments and their employees, including departments with no employees (LEFT JOIN).
17. Find employees who do not belong to any department.

18. Find employees who earn more than the average salary of the company.
19. Find the second-highest salary in the employees table.